

Improve Your Understanding of Autism Within the Workplace

Developing Equality and Diversity Practice – Understanding Autistic Spectrum Conditions is a one day course designed for Managers/Executives working within the Public and Private Sector who provide support to clients with Autistic Spectrum Conditions.

The training will be particularly beneficial for Health Service employees and those working within schools and colleges.

Study in a relaxed environment within the brand new facilities of Rotherham College of Arts and Technology's Wentworth Building.

You will cover the following areas:

Good practice in Equality and Diversity

- What is Equality and Diversity?
- Models of Equality and Diversity – Medical versus Social
- Basic Principles of the Single Equality Act
- Autism Act 2009

Living and Working with ASC

- What are Autistic Spectrum Conditions
- Barriers to employment, learning and communications
- Strategies for supporting people with ASC
- Action planning for your own organisation
- Developing your response to ASC

Course costs £125. Lunch and refreshments provided

Course runs from January 2012

For further information please contact the Business Improvement team on 08000 890909 or email business@rotherham.ac.uk