Understanding Common Childhood Illnesses

Understanding Common Childhood Illnesses

Campus: Distance Learning
Code: DLAC021
Level: 2

About This Course

This course will enable you to gain a thorough understanding of the reasons why babies and children may become unwell. Candidates will examine how infectious illnesses are spread in an early years setting and how good personal hygiene and cleanliness routines can protect children from certain illnesses. You will also learn how common childhood illnesses are treated and how to effectively respond to medical emergencies involving a baby or child in their care. For example, you will look at how to recognise and respond to suspected meningitis, asthma attacks, hypoglycaemia and severe allergic reactions.
