First Aid Awareness

Campus: Rotherham College

Code: R28AC29

Type: Part Time

This First Aid Awareness course provides participants with essential knowledge and practical understanding to recognise and respond effectively in emergency situations.

Designed for individuals seeking foundational life-saving skills without full certification requirements, this introductory course covers basic principles of emergency care, scene safety, and crucial interventions for common injuries and medical emergencies.

Participants will gain the confidence needed to act calmly and decisively during the vital minutes before professional medical help arrives.

About This Course

- Assess and Secure Emergency Scenes: Evaluate potential hazards to ensure personal safety, bystander safety, and victim safety before delivering aid.
- Recognise Life-Threatening Conditions: Identify symptoms of critical medical emergencies, including cardiac arrest, stroke, severe allergic reactions, and severe bleeding.
- Perform Primary Emergency Care: Apply fundamental life-support techniques, including hands-only CPR, basic airway management, and the use of an Automated External Defibrillator (AED).
- Manage Common Injuries and Wounds: Execute basic first aid for minor and major cuts, burns, fractures, and sprains to prevent further complications or infection.

- Demonstrate Effective Emergency Communication: Gather key patient information and clearly report details to emergency medical services (EMS) during a handoff.
