

ESOL, Maths, English & Communication Skills

The Literacy Foundation

Campus: Rotherham College

Code: R28AC42

Type: Part Time

Designed specifically for adults taking their first steps back into learning, Literacy Foundations offers a warm, informal, and non-judgmental environment to help you build basic reading and writing skills at your own pace.

If you struggle with everyday English, find filling in forms stressful, or want to feel more capable in day-to-day life, this gentle introduction is for you.

Through small, practical activities drawn from daily real-world tasks, you will grow your vocabulary, improve your handwriting, and discover that learning English as an adult can be enjoyable and achievable—with zero exam pressure.

About This Course

- Recognise and spell common everyday words used in local community settings, transport, and simple notices.
- Write essential personal details with confidence when filling out simple paper and online forms (e.g., name, address, contact details).
- Read and understand short, familiar text passages, such as short notes, basic labels, and simple instructions.
- Produce short, simple sentences using basic punctuation (capital letters and full stops) for personal notes or basic messages.
- Develop positive learning habits and confidence to tackle everyday reading and writing tasks independently without fear.
